

You are invited to participate in the 33rd Annual Christmas in the Village Craft Festival in Eldersville, PA. The dates are Friday, November 5 - Saturday, November 6 - and Sunday, November 7, 2021. The hours are 10:00 to 5:00 each day. If using a GPS, type in 12 Fire Road, Burgettstown, PA 15021. The Festival begins with “Light up Night” at 7:30 pm on Thursday, November 4th at the Eldersville United Methodist Church.

It is exciting to note that Christmas in the Village has been in existence as a craft festival for 33 years. In celebration of this great milestone we will have a theme of “CANDLELIGHT CHRISTMAS.” We suggest that you decorate your tables with candles.

Christmas in the Village is a unique, well established annual Craft Festival. Information at the Firehall

Enclosed is your Application to participate in the Craft Festival. This Application must be completed and returned as soon as possible to reserve your space. The table spaces fill up fast as they are limited, however we have lots of tent space., so it is to your benefit to return as soon as possible. Applications will be considered on a first come basis. Please read the Guidelines enclosed. You must sign the Guidelines page for acceptance when you return your Application with your check. Please make your check payable to “Christmas in the Village”. An Application is available to print online at www.christmasinthevillagepa.com.

Christmas in the Village offers a place for children to come and enjoy Breakfast with Santa on Saturday at 8:30 am in the Fire Hall. Make Reservations by calling Paulette Mermon at 724-587-3832. The Parade starts at noon on Saturday.

You can shop for Crafts or buy Food at the following places in the Village: Eldersville Methodist Church; White Church Building; Jefferson Township Fire Hall; and Christmas in the Village Pavilion and Tents and also at several homes throughout the village.
